You're alone at a decrepit bus stop, just outside of town. Rain is pouring, and you're waiting. Finally, your phone buzzes : It's the coordinates. Next to the rows of numbers you're supposed to permanently implant in your brain is a fiery icon and a warning : This message will self-destruct in one minute

Outside of Tom Cruise on a film set, I doubt the situation described above happens to a whole lot of us, but the need to have a private conversation really private, as opposed to easily being snooped upon by governments and other entities or to send a time-limited text message, is definitely real for many Read more... More about Security , Reviews , Tech , Mobile , and Silent Circle <http://ad.doubleclick.net/jump/mash...>
