Think twice before you write a bad Yelp review for the Iron Horse in New York City, they may just put you in your place.

After a Yelper had an unfavorable experience at a dive bar in Lower Manhattan, she took to Yelp in order to vent some of her frustrations, leaving the Iron Horse with a one-star review

An unfavorable review can be damaging for any business, so the bar's owner responded. He explained why arriving at a one-star review was a bit unfair considering the reviewer's reasons.

The Yelper was looking for a quiet place to have a drink with friends. However, dive bars are known for being cheap and rowdy. They're the kind of place where you can spill your drink and no one will look twice, somewhere you can make a total ass of yourself and be welcomed back the next night with a pickelback.
