3 Firefox Add-ons Every Ubuntu User Needs

[JPEG - 8.4Â kio]

Firefox is the default browser in Ubuntu but it doesn't integrate with the Unity desktop as well as it could. That's where the following Ubuntu Firefox add-ons come in. These little extras, trivial though they seem, help to bridge the (admittedly few) gaps and missing functionality between browser and OS. None of these are new, but they're all [...]
